SEVERE ON THE LEGISLATURE.—In the Church of the Puritans, New York, on Sunday last, Reverend Dr. Cheever delivered a discourse on "The Right of the Colored Race in Convention," &c. After the usual Sabbath evening service, Dr. Cheever proceeded with his discourse, taking for his text the twenty-first verse of the second chapter of the Epistle of Paul to the Romans—"Thou therefore, which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? Thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?" The question here submitted by the Apostle was applicable to the Legislature of the State, at Albany. The Northern people had shown themselves prompt and ready to lay down the law to the Southern States, and was ready to give light to them that were in darkness, while they themselves continued in darkness, and committed iniquity before the world.

THE SOUTH AND RECONSTRUCTION. It would seem, says the New York Herald, that the District Commanders find but little disposition on the part of those subjected to the operation of the reconstruction act to render the execution of the law either difficult or disagreeable; but from all indications, an earnest desire is manifested to reach the end of their tribulations, and once more to be found working in harmony with the other States of the Union.
